Dickies' GDT Premium Shorts are functional, lightweight, and flexible

This month we're giving five lucky readers the chance to win a pair of Dickies' brand new GDT Premium Shorts.

Part of Dickies' GDT collection – a smart and functional cotton-based workwear range – the shorts are lightweight and flexible, making them ideal for plumbers looking to stay comfortable this summer, without compromising on fit and style.

As with all items in the GDT Premium range, the shorts are both durable and fashionable and easy to coordinate with other items from the GDT collection.

Practical features include a Cordura cargo pocket, hip pockets, and wide belt loops.

The shorts are available in three colour-ways, including black/grey, grey/black, and stone/black.
